

Write down the business objectives for our project?

- Access to career guidance is available for all young people from all backgrounds and regions.
- Help people identify and find jobs that match their interests and skills.
- Reduce the time and effort required for research and research activities.
- Gives personal advice based on personal strengths and goals.
- Taking pride in personal work and success as they will follow their passions.
- Enhance workforce diversity and inclusion by recommending jobs that match an individual's unique abilities
- Reduce the cost and complexity of career counseling programs by providing digital solutions.